

BROADCAST EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

Educating for Tomorrow's Media

25TH NATIONAL SALARY SURVEY 2018/2019 DATA

Following are the results of this year's salary survey data gathering. Respondents encompassed all types of institutions ranging from small, private, liberal arts colleges to major doctoral level public institutions.

Please note the following:

1. All salaries are base salaries --- they do not reflect fringe benefits.
2. All have been adjusted to an academic year (9-10 month) basis.
3. Only faculty teaching electronic media have been included.
4. The survey includes only full-time faculty – both tenure track and temporary/fixed term.

RANK	LOW	HIGH	MEAN*
Instructor/Lecturer	$22,000	$70,380	$47,073
Asst. Professor	$32,000	$79,587	$60,540
Assoc. Professor	$40,000	$102,974	$72,650
Full Professor	$64,072	$122,051	$85,095

*Average of means compiled by each respondent for each rank.

Salary most likely to be paid to an incoming INSTRUCTOR/LECTURER without prior full-time teaching experience.

$39,400

Most likely salary for an incoming ASSISTANT PROFESSOR who has just completed the terminal degree.

$55,850

Data compiled and reported by Peter B. Orlik under authority of the Broadcast Education Association Board of Directors.